POLITICAL NOTES.

Two Prominent Speakers at Mayfield Saturday.

Jo Parker in Paducah and Speaks Tonight.

About 1,000 persons, Democrats, Republicans and Populists, were present at the great house in Mayfield Saturday afternoon to hear two prominent speakers. Senator William Lindsay and ex-Governor S. B. Buckner in defense of the sound money Document. The best of attention was paid throughout, and a number of ladies were present to hear a discussion of the money question. The speakers were introduced by Hon.
J. C. Spight, ex-Representative from Hickman county, who has lately become a citizen of Mayfield.

Senator Lindsay spoke first, but on account of a very severe cold he was unable to fill his time and commenced only an hour. His talk was a very able one, and his manner was most pleasing to the audience. He greeted his audience in a friendly manner. The Senator spoke in the old county of Hickman, and has a host of friends of every name and order, many of whom were present to hear him. He put in some good words for National Democracy, and his coming strengthened the cause in this section.

Gov. Buckner spoke an hour, and his remarks were heard with great attention by many of his old war rades, some of whom are free silvers, but could not forget the pleasure of again meeting and hearing the old warrior who had so often led them to the light in days gone by. No speakers have been to Mayfield this year as met with as royal a reception as these two old veterans, and they have given to the small money cause a boost that will be felt in the election tomorrow.

The crowd which greeted J. A.
Parker, candidate for the office of Governor Saturday afternoon, filled the great court room. It was composed mostly of Populists from the country. Parker's speech was in the main along the line of his previous speeches during the campaign, but that portion which he paid his respects to certain free silver papers and leaders, was of the kind called hot stuff, and was the kind which he recovered his candidacy and will free silver leaders first from the child dependency under Shawshank. In this, they tried to humiliate him, and as a result result, took to lying. The real papers and letters defending him from the charges made against him Murray and denouncing certain editorial and news reports to free silver papers as infamous lies. He announced that he would return to Murray and speak there next Monday. Parker had challenged any free silvers to meet him today, but none appeared.

J. A. Parker spoke today at Belton, Ky., and will arrive in the city and speak tonight at the market house. He will give the people some "hot stuff," it is said.

Capt. Farley has made many friends during his campaign, and looks confident of victory at the politician. He has a strong following, and will get, in addition to the anti-Republican vote, that of many Democrats and Populists, as well as gentlemen independent in politics.

Divorce and Marriage in One Day.
David Alton and Lucy McGee, colored, were married soon after right. The woman was granted a divorce from her husband, David Mc-Gee, in the afternoon of the same day.

The case against Ed Martin, colored, charged with stealing a cow, was continued by Judge Sandemull Wednesday, on account of the absence of witnesses from the country

It appears that Marshal Collins and the police were the victims of a "fake" in the reported double hanging of two Paducah negroes, Jim Pendleton and Mamm Mitchell, who were reported to have been executed at Mound City, Ill., and sentenced to hang on Nov. 19.

The Sun is in receipt of the following telegram:

No such persons in jail here as Pendleton and Mitchell.

Several members of the old Mozart club rendered the celebrated Balthus's Mozart Quartet Mass at St. Thomas's church, near Maxon's Mills, yesterday.

A large concourse of Catholics as well as Protestants filed the church to overflowing. After the services the choir did justice to an elegant dinner, prepared by the ladies, Mrs.

IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.

[From Election Law, Art. III, part of Sec. 23.]

Should any elector desire to vote for each and every candidate of one party, he shall make a cross-mark (X) in the large square embracing the device and preceding the title under which the candidates of said party are printed, and the vote shall then be counted for all the candidates under that title. Provided, however, That if a cross-mark (X) be made in the large square including the device of such party, and a cross-mark be also made in the square after the name of one or more candidates of a different party or parties, the vote shall be counted for the candidate so marked, and not for the candidates for the same office of the party so marked; but the vote shall be counted for the other candidates under such party name or designation.

GRAND RALLY TONIGHT

Republicans.

Good Speakers Will Talk on the Issues of the Day—Everybody Come Out.

The grand Republican Rally at the court house will take place tonight, whether it rains or not. Capt. J. E.
Williamson, Nominée Ed Farley and Col. Henry Houston will speak.
Other speakers will also be there.
Everybody is invited to come out and enjoy the occasion.

EPISCOPAL CONVOCAATION

Begins Tomorrow at Hopkinsville, Ky.

Rev. H. F. Reed, of the City, is Dean—Down for a Sermon and an Address.

The Paducah convention of the Episcopal church meets tomorrow at Hopkinsville, Ky., in Grace church.
It begins in the afternoon of Tuesday and adjourns Thursday night.

There are seven churches and eight missions in the convention. About thirty delegates and many visitors will be present from the churches at Henderson, Russellville, Hickman, Columbus, Guthrie and Paducah.

Reverend Reed, of the city, is down for a sermon tomorrow night and an address Wednesday afternoon. Mrs.
Reed is to read a paper entitled "Our Women Missionaries."

NEWSPAPER DEAL.

Mr. J. R. Lemmon Disposes of His Register Stock.

Mr. Wilhelm Now Sole Owner of Paducah's Only Morning Daily.

A newspaper deal that had been on the tapis for some time was consummated Saturday night, and by its completion the Paducah Register passes, it is understood, into the sole management and control of Mr. James E. Wilhelm, the present general manager, for the present, at least. Mr.
J. R. Lemmon, who has been identified with the paper since its establishment a little over a year ago, having disposed of his stock.

It is not present known what, if any, changes will be made. It has been reported that Mr. E. O. Leigh, who occupied position on the Owe-sboro Messenger for a month ago, will return to Paducah and assume editorial management of the paper, but this is probably not true.

Mr. Frey Woodson, according to reports, will surrender the management of the Louisville Dispatch after the election and return to the Owe-sboro Messenger.

SMALL PLACES.

The Fire Department Called Out Saturday Night.

Saturday night about 10 o'clock fire was discovered in the new drug store of Mr. John Bonds, at Third and Court streets. Passersby saw smoke issuing from the building and gave the alarm. It proved that a box of nitrate was on fire, and the fire was extinguished without damage.

Late Saturday afternoon a small blaze at the home of License Inspector James at Third and Madison streets, called the department out, but its services were not needed.

A condemned box car was ignited in the C. & O. yards Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the purpose of testing the fire department, organized among the ship employees. Sometimes the blaze and sent in an alarm from Twelfth and Broadway, necessitating a useless run of the department.

A VENTURESOME HORSE.

Fried to Run Across a Railroad Trestle.

A horse belonging to Mr. F. B. G-lesherger ran away yesterday a terrible and created some little excitement on the south side.

The animal broke loose from the buggy and ran some little distance out on the N. & O. trestle of the N. C. & St. L. and then fell through.
The horse was rescued only with great difficulty. It had to be hoisted up by ropes and pulleys and then led back, and was badly scared up.

HER HUSBAND KILLED HER.

Tragic Death of a Former Paducah Girl in Denver.—Shot Through Her
Head.

Her Husband is Under Arrest.— Says He Was Shooting at a Burglar—Her Marriage Was Romantic.

The following associated press dispatch, sent out from Denver, Colorado, Saturday night, will prove of no little interest to Paducahans, where the death of a sensational tragedy formerly occurred:

Fred C. Sanchez, general manager of the firm of F. C. Sanchez & Co., dealers in laces, wool and tallow, shot and killed his wife this morning in the Colorado House. Sanchez is twenty-one years of age, his wife but nineteen.

So far as known, they had had no trouble. Sanchez claims he was asleep with his wife, when some one opened the door and shot at him.
He says he pulled his forty-five caliber revolver from beneath his pillow and fired, but in his excitement he did not raise his arm far enough and shot his wife through the head. The police doubt the man's story about having been shot at while in bed, for when arrested immediately after the shooting he was attired in street clothes and bore no evidence of having retired for the night. Sanchez and his wife, whose maiden name was Jennie Warren, were married about six months ago at Metropolis, Ill., which was the home of the girl, an orphan. Sanchez came from Valencia, N. M., a town south of Albuquerque, where his father still lives.

It is said the woman's life was heavily insured.

Mrs. Sanchez, formerly Jennie Warren, resided in Paducah until last May, at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Officer J. F. Barnhart, 617 North Fifth street. She is also related to Mrs. R. E. Eubanks, Mr.
James P. Eubanks and Mr. Henry Warren, of the city, and a young brother, George Warren, now makes his home with Officer Barnhart.

The marriage of the unfortunate girl was a romantic one. She read an advertisement in a matrimonial paper from Sanchez, and soon a correspondence sprang up. Sanchez went to Metropolis, where the girl was living, in August, and spent two or three days. On August 22 last they were married by Judge Liggett.

The latter received a telegram Saturday announcing the tragedy, and forwarded it at once to Paducah relatives. Through some oversight, however, it was never delivered, and it was merely through accident that a lady heard of it and mentioned it to a relative when she returned from Metropolis Saturday.

The telegram was delivered yesterday.

The rumors will probably be barred in Denver. Today, however, it had not been decided whether relatives here would have them shipped or not.

Officer Barnhart learned at Metropolis yesterday that the husband's actions while there were very peculiar. He employed a man to attend him, paying him $25. He transacted his business through him, and would not leave his room at the hotel except in a hack, and would not allow his name to be disclosed to any one.

This morning the chief of police was telegraphed to ship the remains to Paducah for interment.

Mrs. Sanchez was the second daughter of William Warren, of Livingstone county, who died some five-teen years. Her mother died about the same time and a family of five children were thus orphaned.

The nearest relatives in this city are a brother, George Warren, aged about 15 years, who lives at 1010 Frisbie street; her grandfather H. C.
Warren, same address, and two sons, Mrs. B. J. Barnhart, of 617 North Fifth, and Mrs. John D.
Merritt, of 209 North Seventh. An elder sister, Miss Kate Warren, resides in Mound City, Ill., and a younger sister at Bay City, Ill. One brother, Morris Warren, aged 17, lives near Joplin, Mo., and met with an accident in the inadvertent discharge of a gun while hunting a month or so ago, which rendered useless the thumb of his right hand, and which was a narrow escape from death, two or three shots passing through his hat him.
His arm is still worn in a sling.

Look out for election lies that may be started at the last moment. Victory is in sight. All we need is a full Republican vote and we will win.

HOW TO VOTE.

Some Interesting Points to Voters.
Something About Voting Scratch Tickets.
For the information of those who desire to vote a split ticket tomorrow, it might be stated that if a voter stamps under any one device alone, it will vote every name on that ticket. If he stamps under any one device, and then in the square opposite the name of some candidate under another device, it will vote all of the ticket stamped, except the name in the other ticket, after which a cross was placed. For further information read the election law in another place.
Look out for election lies that may be started at the last moment. Victory is in sight. A full Republican vote and we will win.

James Bryant Closes His Barber Shop.

Jim Bryant, the colored barber, has closed up his barber shop on Broadway near the Market store, and will move back to his old home in Washington City in a short time to spend the remainder of his days. He is still working at his trade here, however, in another shop.

He is one of the best known and most comfortably fixed colored men financially in Paducah, and is highly respected by the people, as well as among the white people.

Claude Wade, aged 5 years, died yesterday at Paducah, Marshall county, of diphtheria. He was a son of S. A. Wade.
